Recent lottery winner seeks his psychic stranger

June 19, 2008 in divination, precognition, prescience | No comments
A builder is desperate to find the psychic who predicted he would scoop £3million in the lottery whilst the stranger was browsing in his daughters pet shop in Hull. Tony Nutbrown discovered he was a winner just hours after the mystery woman told his daughter about a premonition that someone in her family would become a millionaire. Tony Nutbrown is on a mission to find this stranger saying ..It's either an incredible coincidence or this lady can see into the future. I have called Claire at home and asked if she could get in touch with the lady to pass on my thanks.'
